

Herron Todd White provides independent property valuations to ensure you make an informed property decision. A qualified valuer will conduct a full inspection of the nominated property, carry out research and analysis into the local market and provide a detailed report providing information and commentary on issues affecting the current market value of the property.

Independent property valuations are useful for many different purposes and are tailored to suit your needs in the following situations:

- Mortgage security (accepted by all major financial institutions)
- Pre purchase
- Pre sale
- Family / Partnership settlement
- Litigation
- Transfer duty
- Capital gains tax
- Building insurance (replacement costs assessments)

Herron Todd White is Australia's largest valuation firm with more than 400 professional staff throughout Australia. We undertake comprehensive in house training and continued professional development for all valuation staff and ensure that all valuers are fully qualified and members of the Australian Property Institute.

Given our size and experience we can offer in-house specialisation across all property types including residential, commercial, industrial, rural, tourism and leisure. This ensures our customers receive the best advice from relevant experts in their particular field.

We offer unequalled coverage for independent property valuation services as indicated below:
